

Travel information

- The ticket is validated on your first travel day and determines the seasonal price to be charged.
- Provided the ticket has been validated, bears the holder's name, passport number and signature, and has not reached its expiry date, the Eurolines Pass entitles the holder to travel between 43 designated cities shown in the Journey Planner, together with any applicable ferry crossings, road tolls and travel taxes. It is not possible to use the Pass for more than 2 journeys (one return) between the same city. The only extras may be for luggage charges where they apply. Youth passes are for customers under 26 years, children under 2 years travel for free. It is not possible to purchase the Pass for groups of more than 10.
- The Eurolines Pass is neither refundable nor transferable. Misuse of the Pass may lead to forfeiture. No refunds will be made for lost or stolen Passes.
- It is the customer's responsibility to ensure that they have a valid passport/I.D. card for travel, plus any visas that may be required in the various countries they may pass through or visit. Eurolines does not accept any responsibility for any person being refused the entry into any country included on the ticket in consequence of failure to obtain the correct and valid documents.
- Customers are advised to reserve each journey at the designated Eurolines office or coach station at least 48 hours in advance. In high season it is advisable to make reservations well in advance. You are only guaranteed a seat if a reservation is made. A reservation fee of £3 or €4 is applicable. When changing reservations, a fee may be charged in local currency. If a reservation is not made in advance, you may be put on a stand-by list. The first journey may be booked at the point of departure when purchasing the Eurolines Pass ticket. A reservation can only be made in the city of departure.
- All tickets are sold subject to the standard conditions of carriage for the Eurolines member companies. In so far as these and other carriers' conditions apply, these are implicitly accepted when you place a booking. Copies of the conditions of carriage are available for inspection at the local offices.

- If you are dissatisfied in any way with the service received from Eurolines member companies, you should address any correspondence to the Eurolines company you purchased your Eurolines Pass through; see list of offices.
- Timetable information is only available on the website at eurolines.com. Every effort is made to keep the information as up-to-date as possible, but services may be subject to change. You are advised to check the timetable information at the local Eurolines office or at www.eurolines.com. Be aware that not all cities are directly linked.
- Customers are advised to take out travel insurance.
- Services are operated by Eurolines member companies throughout Europe.

Your great value ticket to European travel

If you would like to see Europe's top cities, but you do not have a massive budget then why not enjoy Europe at your own pace with a Eurolines Pass?

You can enjoy travel between 43 of Europe's best cities, stopping as long as you want in each location. Just pre-book your first journey and from then on you can book as you go. A charge of €4 or £3 is made for each journey reservation following the first.

Travelling by road allows you to actually see each country close up and because we take you from city centre to city centre, you avoid the inconvenience and cost of travelling into the city from an out of town airport.

All our coaches are modern and comfortable, with reclining seats and toilets. There are regular refreshment breaks and your luggage, a backpack or up to two medium sized suitcases which are carried at no extra charge, will be stowed safely in the hold during your journey.

So, choose where you want to go, sit back, relax and see Europe by coach!

Plan your route

With your Eurolines Pass you can travel from country to country at your own pace, with 43 cities to choose from.

Just pick the places you want to visit, then as long as each journey takes you from one country to another, without repeating a journey, there's no limit to how many cities you can visit.

Eurolines is only allowed to operate international journeys. Therefore, it is not possible to make internal journeys within a country using the Eurolines Pass (with the exception of internal travel between Barcelona and Madrid in Spain).

Hotels and hostels for less

As a Eurolines Pass holder Eurolines, together with leading accommodation providers HostelBookers and OctopusTravel, can offer you some really great deals on accommodation in some of Europe's most popular cities.

Stay in a 3* hotel in Prague for as little as €12 per person, per night, and that includes breakfast and taxes! There's accommodation to suit all budgets and it's simple to book – just visit eurolines.co.uk

See the sights

Pre-book City Sightseeing tours in loads of Europe's leading cities to really get the most from your trip.

You can hop on and hop off the tour bus as much as you like at any of the bus stops on the route, so you can see all the city's best sights and attractions.

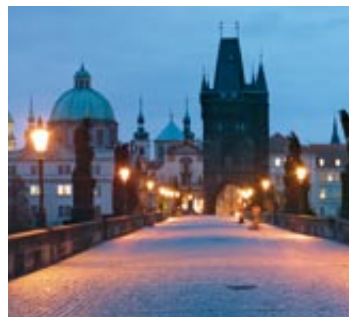

Amsterdam

Possibly Europe's most relaxed capital, boasting a thriving arts scene, rich history and extremely colourful nightlife.

Prague

Forget the stag parties, the Czech capital is truly welcoming with its timeless architecture, friendly pubs and vibrant people.

Vienna

Attractions include the imperial palaces of Hofburg and Schonbrunn, home to the world's oldest zoo, and the Spanish Riding School.

Berlin

Germany's largest city is one of the greenest in Europe, and the perfect destination for hedonists and culture vultures alike.
