TRAVEL INFORMATION

- The ticket is validated on your first travel day and determines the seasonal fare to be charged.
- Provided the ticket has been validated, bears the holder's name, passport number and signature, and has not reached its expiry date, the Eurolines Pass entitles the holder to travel between 50 designated cities shown in the Journey Planner, together with any applicable ferry crossings, road tolls and travel taxes. It is not possible to use the Pass for more than 2 journeys (one return) between the same city. The only extras may be for luggage charges where they apply. Youth fares are for passengers under 26 years, children under 2 years travel for free. It is not possible to purchase the Pass for groups of more than 10.
- The Eurolines Pass is neither refundable nor transferable. Misuse of the Pass may lead to forfeiture. No refunds will be made for lost or stolen Passes.
- It is the customer's responsibility to ensure that they have a valid passport/I.D. card for travel, plus any visas that may be required in the various countries they may pass through or visit. Eurolines does not accept any responsibility for any person being refused the entry into any country included on the ticket in consequence of failure to obtain the correct and valid documents.
- Customers are advised to reserve each journey at the designated Eurolines office or coach station at least 48 hours in advance. In high season it is advisable to make reservations well in advance. You are only guaranteed a seat if a reservation is made. When changing reservations, a fee may be charged in local currency. If a reservation is not made in advance, you may be put on a stand-by list. The first journey may be booked at the point of departure when purchasing the Eurolines Pass ticket. A reservation can only be made in the city of arrival.
- All tickets are sold subject to the standard conditions of carriage for the Eurolines member companies. In so far as these and other carriers conditions apply, these are implicitly accepted when you place a booking. Copies of the conditions of carriage are available for inspection at the local offices.
- Eurolines is only allowed to operate international journeys therefore it is not possible to make internal journeys within a country using the Eurolines Pass with the exception of some services covered in the internal travel section.
- If you are dissatisfied in any way with the service received from Eurolines member companies, you should address any correspondence to the Eurolines company you purchased your Eurolines Pass through; see list of offices.
- Timetable information is only available on the web site at eurolines.com Every effort is made to keep the information as up-to-date as possible, but services may be subject to change. You are advised to check the timetable information at the local Eurolines office or at www.eurolines.com. Be aware that not all cities are directly linked.
- Customers are advised to take a travel insurance.
- Services are operated by Eurolines member companies throughout Europe.

THE EUROLINES PASS

EUROPE
PACE

15 Days
from £159

With the Eurolines Pass seeing Europe is easy and you can travel as much or as little as you want.

There's 50 cities to choose from but if you find somewhere you love, then there's nothing to stop you staying for as long as you want – as long as you're home by the time your pass expires.

Travelling over land means that you'll really get to see the countries you visit – and because you'll be travelling from city centre to city centre you won't waste time and money on out-of-town transfers. All our coaches are modern and comfortable, with reclining seats and toilets. There's regular refreshment breaks and with your luggage stowed safely by the driver, all you need to do is sit back and relax.

We invite you to logon to www.eurolines.com and view your proposed itinerary in order to ensure that our services meets your requirements.

PLAN YOUR ROUTE

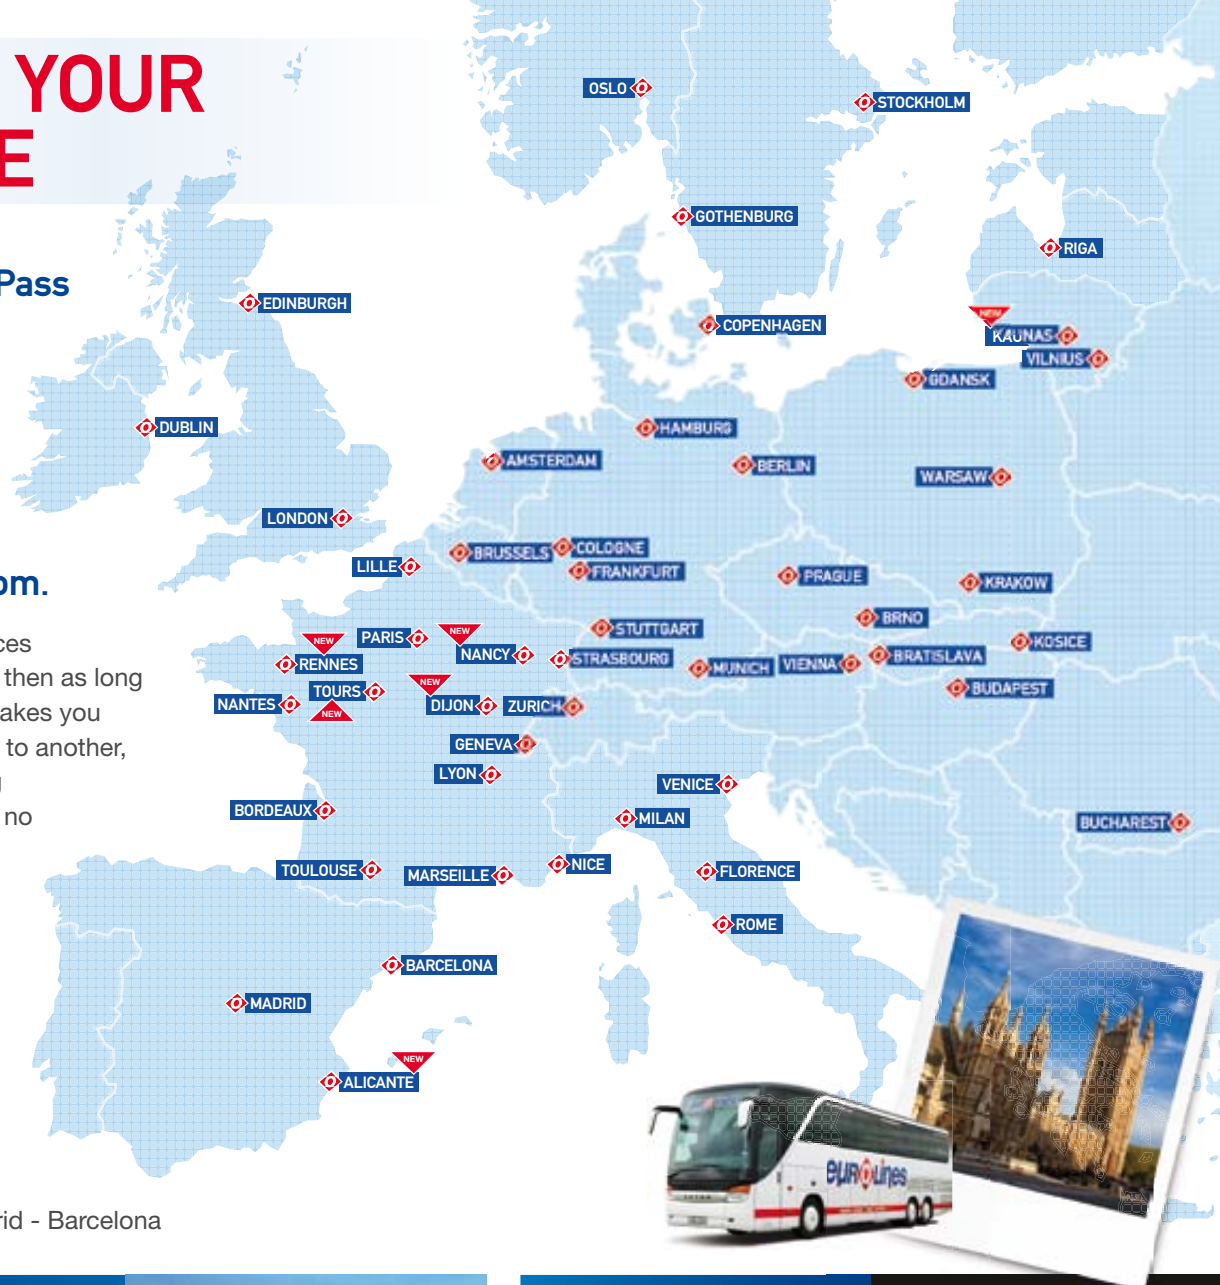

With a Eurolines Pass you can travel from country to country, with over 50 cities to choose from.

Just pick the places you want to visit, then as long as each journey takes you from one country to another, without repeating a journey, there's no limit to how many you visit.

The following internal journey is also allowed.

In Spain

Barcelona - Madrid - Barcelona

SEE MORE OF EUROPE FOR LESS WITH A EUROLINES PASS

Want to see Europe's top cities? But you're on a budget?

Then it's time to get a Eurolines Pass because it's the ticket which gives you flexibility, comfort and value.

With the Eurolines Pass you enjoy unlimited travel between 50 cities across Europe and - best of all - you can plan your route as you travel. All you need to do is pre-book your first destination and from there you can book as you go – giving you total freedom to chill out and travel at your own pace.

HOTELS FOR LESS

Need somewhere to stay?

Eurolines, with leading accommodation providers LateRooms.com and HostelBookers.com and Laterooms.com, offer you some really great deals on hostels and hotels across Europe.

City sightseeing has never been so much fun!

Hop On and Hop Off as much as you like at any of the bus stops on the route and see all the best sights and attractions that the town or city has to offer.

AMSTERDAM

Possibly Europe's most relaxed capital, boasting a thriving arts scene, rich history and extremely colourful nightlife.

PRAGUE

Forget the stag parties, the Czech capital is truly welcoming with its timeless architecture, friendly pubs and vibrant people.

VIENNA

A dynamic young city, famous for its music scene and street performers, Vienna is also famous for its coffee culture.

BERLIN

Germany's largest city and one of the greenest in Europe, and the perfect destination for hedonists and culture vultures alike.
