

Enjoy The Netherlands

Great football teams, windmills, free pink bicycles, tulips, great cafes, fine art galleries, and an easy going approach to life, make a visit to Holland unforgettable.

Amsterdam

The cafés are full, the museums are packed with great art and everyone still parties like there's no tomorrow. Amsterdam is a delight to visit any time of year. To join in, all you need to pack is a few days' attitude.

Rotterdam

There's no 'old town centre' here. In its place is an architectural style that fits its 'anything goes' attitude. Rotterdam is buzzing with energy, a superb nightlife, a multicultural community, a gritty arts scene, and a clutch of excellent museums. To get a birds eye view of the city you can visit the Euromast tower. Make your way to the 'crow's nest' observation platform 96m (315ft) above ground.

Den Haag (the Hague)

The governmental and political center of the Netherlands. Every Thursday, there is a big antique market on the Lange Voorhout, the largest square in Europe. The Mauritshuis art museum houses several of the greatest works of Rembrandt and Vermeer.

Utrecht

Utrecht has plenty to discover if you take some time to look around. Kasteel de Haar on the city's doorstep is one of the country's most beautiful castles. Amersfoort, a walled town to the northeast, is overloaded with medieval character. Then there's Oudewater in the southwest, with strong associations to witchcraft.

Travelling with EuroLines coach services to Europe depart from Victoria Coach Station in London which is located close to Victoria Underground and Bus stations.

Check-In

Customers need to check-in at the EuroLines check-in office located adjacent to Gate 19. Check in commences one hour before departure and closes 15 minutes before to enable all customers to board and to ensure a prompt departure. Customers should have their Passports and other travel documents ready for inspection at check-in. A boarding card for each customer and luggage labels will be issued and customers will be advised from which gate their coach will leave. Check in time at other UK departure points is 30 minutes before departure.

Luggage

Customers must label their luggage which will be loaded into the hold of the coach and will normally remain there until arrival at the destination or interchange point. The Coach driver will load and unload customers' luggage but customers are responsible for seeing their own luggage onto and off the coach on which they are travelling.
